Through a warm and bewitching local population, share and exchange your cultures and traditions. Venture into this authentic and fun journey in a friendly atmosphere. A trip like no other that allows you to see South Africa from the inside.

THE PROGRAM

This South Africa tour offers cultural immersion upon arrival at Johannesburg OR Tambo airport. A visit to Constitution Hill, a former prison that chronicles the living conditions of prisoners during apartheid, is a great way to start the immersion. The trip continues with an exploration of Johannesburg's fashion district, accompanied by an atypical designer, to select a unique

African fabric and create a personalized jacket. The discovery of Soweto, dinner and an evening with Welile and his wife, as well as a visit to the association supported by the agency, are also on the program. The trip continues with an immersion in an authentic and lively Ndebele village, followed by a day in the wilderness to discover the natural wonders of the famous Panoramic Route. The tour includes all meals (except drinks) and transfers from the airport and back.
